

I oppose the efforts of the banking community to seek an exemption from the Indiana privacy laws, which restrict "telemarketing". My wife and I have enjoyed the peace and quiet of NOT being disturbed by these types of calls. If I need to talk to my bank, credit card issuer, etc., I certainly know how to reach them. Please do not allow them to breach my right to privacy.